- Year End Class Medal Earners, and the Top 10% , qualify for the State Championship Meet, held in May
- The Top 5 In each Class at the State Championship Meet qualify to represent OHSET at the Pacific North West Invitational Championship, held in June

Not Your Average Horse Show

- Youth Athletes Represent Their High School
- Individual and Team Classes
- Earn Points for Your Team
- Year End High Point and Class Champion Awards
- Compete to Participate at the State Championship Meet
- Compete and the PNWIC meet; (OHSET vs. WAHSET)
- Earn a Varsity Letter from Your High school (most schools eligible)

Athlete Benefits

Unlike traditional equine events, OHSET provides athletes with recognition in their High School like other Varsity sports. The team environment in OHSET promotes sportsmanship and strengthens athlete's connection to their peers and the school. Class variety, and opportunities to try new disciplines increases horsemanship skills and is a great platform to earn a position on a collegiate equestrian Team.
